Luke 14:16-24

¹⁶ Then Jesus said to him, "Someone gave a great dinner and invited many. ¹⁷ At the time for the dinner he sent his slave to say to those who had been invited, 'Come; for everything is ready now.' ¹⁸ But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of land, and I must go out and see it; please accept my regrets.' ¹⁹ Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please accept my regrets.' ²⁰ Another said, 'I have just been married, and therefore I cannot come.' ²¹ So the slave returned and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.' ²² And the slave said, 'Sir, what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.' ²³ Then the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the roads and lanes, and compel people to come in, so that my house may be filled. ²⁴ For I tell you, none of those who were invited will taste my dinner.'"

God who spoke the world into being,
speak your wisdom among us today.

We seek your wisdom
to live in shalom with each other
and with your creation.

God who loves the world extravagantly,
draw us near to your heart this day.

We seek to know your perfect love
that drives out all fear.

God who gives bread to the hungry,
fill us with courage to eat of your bread,
then freely share your bread with others.

We seek your power
to loosen our shackled tongues
that the whole world might rejoice to hear
the Good News of Jesus Christ.

All: Come let us unite our voices in praise of God!
