Walking in the Spirit M. Hayes

WELCOME TO ALL who are guests this morning.
We hope you feel warmly received and experience a time of worship. Please feel free to contact Pastor Susan if you would like to visit.

WE WELCOME ASIA FRYE to the pulpit this morning.

SPIRIT 'N CELEBRATION is among us today! We give thanks for song and for their community presence.

THANK YOU, FMC, for the wonderful carry-in for Mission Sunday! The creativity and artistry and just plain good cookin' was evident! Thank you, all! May we continue to think on the sharing that Joe Sawatsky shared, so that Spirit movement may be felt in our lives.

5TH SUNDAYS WE TAKE TIME to hear personal sharing from a variety of people. October 29, we have two musicians coming to share with us, Jill Siebert and Braden Unruh. They will sing and share – all are heartily invited!

“VOICES OF CONSCIENCE: PEACE WITNESS IN THE GREAT WAR” exhibit will be on display at Kauffman Museum in North Newton from November 1 to January 21. This exhibit will include information about current acts of conscience as well.

PASTOR SUSAN IS LEADING afternoon services today at Parkside and Salem Homes.

WEDNESDAY EVENING ACTIVITIES:

October 25: Congregation sharing of ideas for south campus of FMC property
November 1: Jim and Susan – Upcoming Chad trip

THE FMC CONGREGATION is invited to an October 25 Wednesday evening adult session where a Stewardship-led discussion on the south part of our property will take place. They will share updates, issues and possible ideas for the courtyard area and the parking area to the south of our building. This will be a time of input from the congregation and a time of listening to each other's ideas -- no decisions will be made. All are welcome to attend.

ANNUAL TABOR MENNONITE MEN Chicken BBQ is Thurs., Nov. 2. They start serving at 5 p.m. for the BEST Chicken BBQ, Baked Beans, Cole Slaw and Ice Cream anywhere. Donations going to Camp Mennoscah & Tabor Building Project. 891 Chisholm Trail, Newton OR from Goessel 3 miles South and 1 mile East.

THE WOMEN OF Trinity Mennonite Church and First Mennonite Church are hosting a Girls Night Out at Trinity on Tuesday, Nov. 14. Women who have businesses, either store front or home-based will have tables with their products for Christmas shopping which will begin at 6:30 p.m. We will also have Lillian Peters speaking on women's mental health issues. And there will be refreshments! Come join us! If you are interested in having a table, please get in touch with Deanne Duerksen.

AMONG OUR FRIENDS

We lift these friends in prayer:

Lester Funk
Glenn Goertz
Joe Knoll
Jim Martens

Bonnie Funk will have outpatient surgery to improve some leg issues. She will have one surgery this week, then a second next week. Let's keep Bonnie in our prayers.

Tabor College continues its popular Recital Series with Dawn Neely. As a performer, Neely has a special interest in contemporary classical music and has performed throughout the southeast with the Druid City Ensemble. As part of the Druid City Ensemble, Neely has been seen in concert throughout the United States in concert halls in Chicago, Atlanta, Baltimore, Nashville, Memphis, and Birmingham. Join us in the Tabor College Chapel on Friday, Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. to listen to this incredible vocal talent!

BETHEL COLLEGE:

Sun., Oct. 29 – Lecture by Brad Born on Pat Barker's novel Regeneration, 3 p.m., Kauffman Museum. This talk is part of the programming around the museum's special exhibit "Voices of Conscience: Peace Witness in the Great War." Genesis 3

3 Now the serpent was more shrewd than any of the wild animals that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Is it really true that God said, 'You must not eat from any tree of the orchard'?" ²The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit from the trees of the orchard; ³but concerning the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the orchard God said, 'You must not eat from it, and you must not touch it, or else you will die.'" ⁴The serpent said to the woman, "Surely you will not die, ⁵for God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will open and you will be like divine beings who know good and evil."

⁶When the woman saw that the tree produced fruit that was good for food, was attractive to the eye, and was desirable for making one wise, she took some of its fruit and ate it. She also gave some of it to her husband who was with her, and he ate it. ⁷Then the eyes of both of them opened, and they knew they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

⁸Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God moving about in the orchard at the breezy time of the day, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the orchard. ⁹But the LORD God called to the man and said to him, "Where are you?" ¹⁰The man replied, "I heard you moving about in the orchard, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid." ¹¹And the LORD God said, "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" ¹²The man said, "The woman whom you gave me, she gave me some fruit from the tree and I ate it." ¹³So the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" And the woman replied, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate."

¹⁴The LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you above all the wild beasts and all the living creatures of the field!

On your belly you will crawl and dust you will eat all the days of your life.

¹⁵And I will put hostility between you and the woman and between your offspring and her offspring; her offspring will attack your head, and you will attack her offspring's heel."

¹⁶To the woman he said, "I will greatly increase your labor pains; with pain you will give birth to children.

You will want to control your husband, but he will dominate you."

¹⁷But to Adam he said, "Because you obeyed your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, 'You must not eat from it,' cursed is the ground thanks to you; in painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.

¹⁸It will produce thorns and thistles for you, but you will eat the grain of the field. ¹⁹By the sweat of your brow you will eat food until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for you are dust, and to dust you will return."

²⁰The man named his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all the living. ²¹The LORD God made garments from skin for Adam and his wife, and clothed them. ²²And the LORD God said, "Now that the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil, he must not be allowed to stretch out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever." ²³So the LORD God expelled him from the orchard in Eden to cultivate the ground from which he had been taken. ²⁴When he drove the man out, he placed on the eastern side of the orchard in Eden angelic sentries who used the flame of a whirling sword to guard the way to the tree of life.

God has set before us life and death.

We long to choose life.

God has set before us blessings and curses.

We long to choose blessings.

Hide not from the face of God.

We gather here to worship God.

We worship God of the Garden.

Thanks be to God!
